

How can NAB stop the broadcast of important weather and traffic news to us who live out in the boondocks, with no real access except our teen-age directed rock stations?

Why are they doing this to us? Please don't let them. We need Satellite radio because it fills a deep void in our listening area.